Hi Steve,

Chris Taylor requested a resolution (item 2, below), and Gordon said this is your domain. Let me know if you need anything more from me.

Thanks!

Hi Elisabeth,

Thanks for drafting the repeal.

Two other issues relating to the rights of pregnant women I would like drafted are:

1. Modifying 48.23 (2m)(a) to add "An adult expectant mother shall be represented by counsel, but may waive counsel if the court is satisfied that the waiver is knowingly and voluntarily made."
2. The attached resolution affirming the rights of pregnant women.

Thanks so much Elisabeth and please let me know if you have any questions! Chris

Assembly Joint Resolution

Whereas, pregnant women have a right to bodily integrity,

Whereas pregnant women have the right to religious freedom

Whereas pregnant women have the right to be free from cruel and unusual punishment

Whereas pregnant women have the right to be free from unjustified searches and seizures

Whereas pregnant women have the right to procedural due process, including the right to effective assistance of counsel

Whereas pregnant women have a right to equal protection under the law;

Whereas pregnant women have a right to not be arbitrarily detained;

Whereas, pregnant women have the right to autonomous decision making;

Whereas pregnant women have the right to have their end of life directives and decisions honored by health care providers and institutions,

Whereas pregnant women have the right to receive confidential health care, provided with respect and dignity

now therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, that pregnant women should be afforded all of the rights of non pregnant people.
